

Forecast For West Midlands
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 0400 on Tuesday 20 Jul 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Another mostly sunny and hot day on Tuesday.

Today:
Any early fog will soon clear, leaving another mainly fine and dry day with plenty of sunshine. Some fair-weather clouds bubbling up in the afternoon, and perhaps an isolated heavy shower, possibly thundery in the east. Feeling hot for most. Maximum temperature 32 deg C (90 deg F).

Tonight:
Cloud clears away through the evening, leaving another night of clear skies, allowing for a risk of patchy fog forming in prone locations. Feeling warm. Minimum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Wednesday:
Another fine and dry day with plenty of sunshine, except for the odd fair-weather cloud and the odd isolated shower during the evening. Feeling hot, especially across the south. Maximum temperature 32 deg C (90 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Fine and largely dry on Thursday and Friday with hot sunny spells and some isolated, heavy showers. Rain, perhaps thundery arriving Friday night into Saturday. Becoming less hot.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.